Penthouse Thigharies - Original Video Series

Penthouse Thigharies is Miaira's viral retro-luxury series paying homage to glamorous late-80s and early-90s TV intros, complete with dramatic fashion, dreamy lighting, and golden-era nostalgia. Each episode is shot, styled, and edited by Miaira, giving it a signature cinematic feel and a uniquely immersive aesthetic.

The concept began when fans fell in love with Miaira's retro dance moves and jokingly dubbed her signature move the "thigh rub." That inside joke grew into a fully realized creative universe (MulTHIGHverse) filled with pun-driven titles, luxe visuals, and a fan base that eagerly awaits each new post.

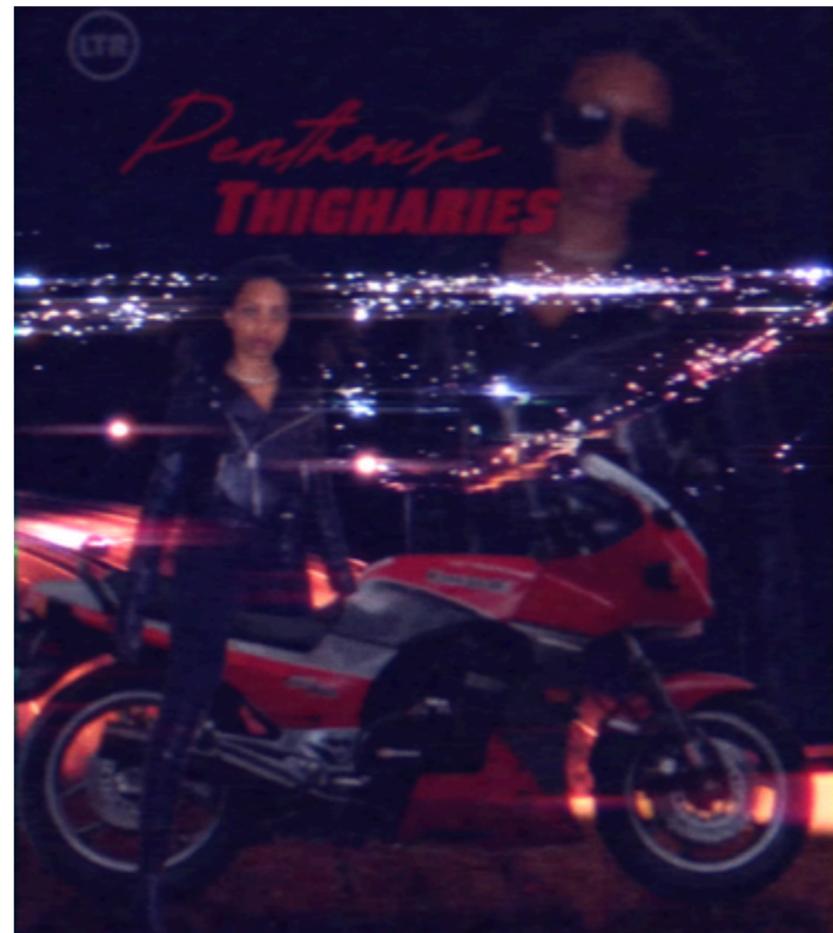

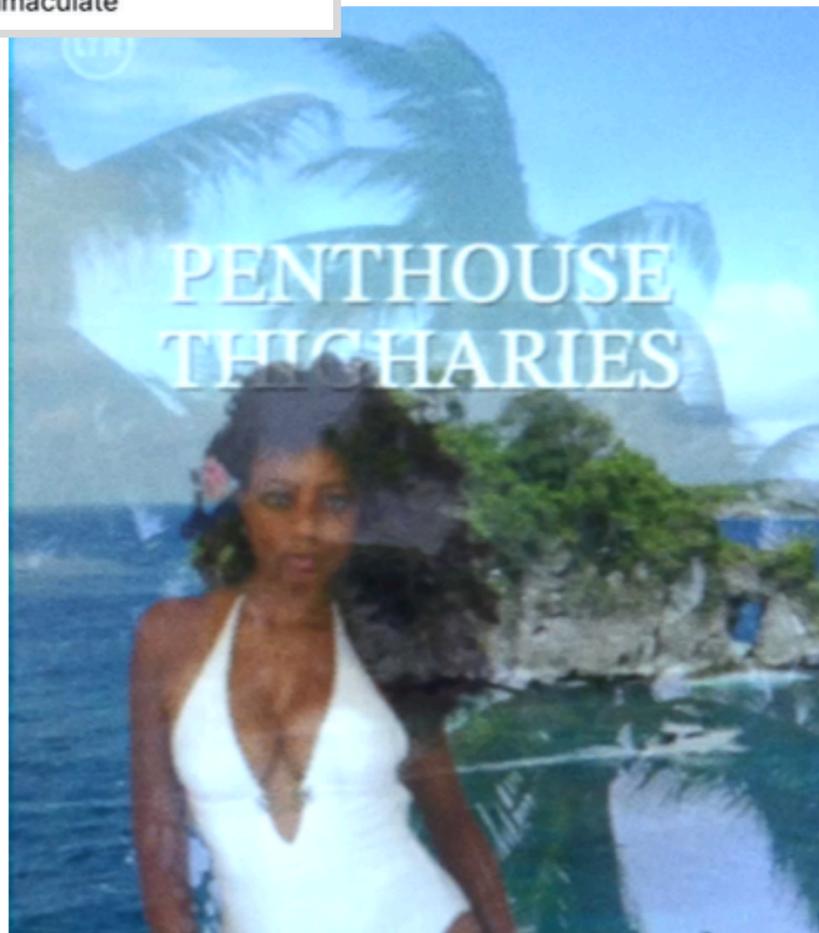

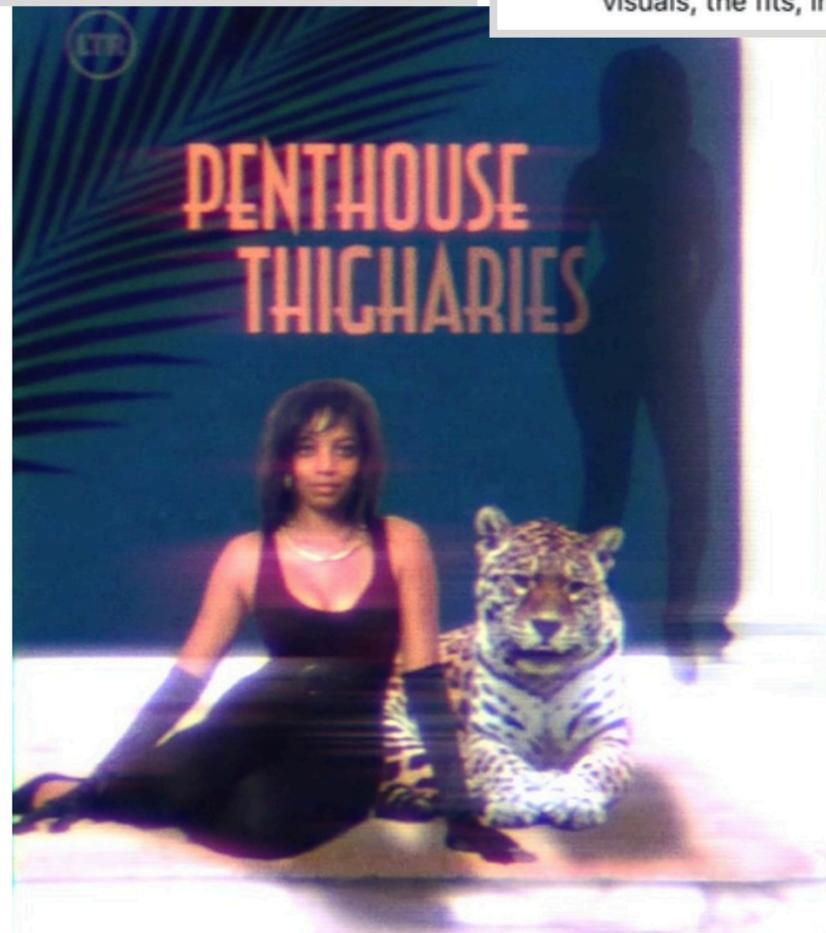

With millions of views across platforms, Penthouse Thigharies has become one of Miaira's most popular creative formats, sparking strong audience engagement, repeat views, and memorable brand affinity opportunities.

80s & 90s Nostalgia (with a Twist)

Beyond Penthouse Thigharies, the MulTHIGHverse continues with Miaira's imaginative recreations of iconic pop-culture moments from the 80s and 90s. By seamlessly inserting herself into beloved scenes with spot-on editing, humor, and nostalgia, she creates immersive visual escapes that spark strong audience emotion and repeat viewership.

Each piece is tied together with her signature choreographed movement (thigh rub, shoulder dip and finale jump), making the format instantly recognizable and highly shareable. The series has built an active community culture, with fans enthusiastically contributing thigh-themed puns and inside jokes in the comments, fueling engagement and fan participation.
